

WEDDING PROCEDURES FOR FOREIGNERS MARRYING IN MALAYSIA

1. Both parties must fill in the Marriage Application Form (Form D) without any signature. Christian name first
2. 3 copies of each passport size photo, 3 sets of Photostat copy of international passport & 3 sets of Photostat copy each of birth certificate is required. All copies of the latter documents must be endorsed true copy by Embassy or your local government office in your country.
3. Status of parties involved e Single, Divorced or Widowed must be produced and endorsed true copy by Embassy or your local government office in your country. The documents are necessary.
*There might be charges incurred for getting documents endorsed which is at your own cost.
4. Upon receipt of the above documents, they will be vetted through to ensure that all are correct and in order. Guest will be duly informed of outcome.
*At this stage, guests' reservation checked for date of arrival if all in order.
5. Appointment will be made with the local Magistrate for the couple to sign in his presence when on the island at earliest date, accompanied by resort officer.
6. Appointment will also be made with the District Officer of Langkawi, in Kuah Town, Langkawi, for the couple, together with a resort officer to go over there to apply for a Special License to get married in Malaysia.
7. Once the Special License is received, all documents will then be sent over to the Register of Marriage's office in Kuah Town, Langkawi, to be processed for 1 day.
8. Once processed, the couple will be married the next day at the Langkawi Register office. Couple will be issued with a made in Malaysia Wedding Certificate.

9. A traditional Malay wedding reception at the resort compound will then be organised for the couple. The date of the event can even be planned after point 6.
10. Administration (points 4-9) will take at least four days once all documentation are in order. For your information weekend in Langkawi falls on Thursday and Friday where government offices are closed.
11. Please allow time for overseas correspondence.
12. Once agreed, the Marriage Application Forms will be sent.

*Legality of Marriage document is subject to individual country's law. In Malaysia, this document is recognised

*This is a Registry wedding. No religious contents are involved.

*Only package available.

*Formal and decent attire is required when couple attends to all the appointments.

Options:

Traditional costumes (headgear & costumes) for 2 person's ranges from RM 300.00 upwards depending on choice.